

Cascade Mountain from the Terrace

No scenic artist could have designed a view as spectacular as that which greets you from the greensward terrace that borders the Riverview Lounge. In the immediate foreground are the tumbling waters of the Bow Falls. Behind the falls the shoulder of Tunnel Mountain masks the base of lordly Cascade whose topmost peak towers 9,386 feet above sea level.

The circular floral cushion, so much admired by visitors, usually features Nemesia in red, blue, yellow, orange and pastel shades with an outer circle of Strumosa Compacta and Jagetes.
